Looking for Land to Create Urban Farm

Seeking to lease ½ to 1 acre of land in Santa Fe to create a new model of community urban farm.

Farm will be operating with French-Intensive Biodynamic principles.

The main partners, Juakin Lawrence Hershman (<http://www.juakinlawrencehershman.com>) and Poki Piottin (<http://pokibio.blogspot.com>) initiated the Dandelion Ranch (<http://thedandelionranch.blogspot.com>) in Santa Fe, a 1/8 acre community garden on private property.

They currently collaborate on the Synergia Ranch Organic Farm (<http://www.synergiafarm.com>) and recently created El Jardin de Guadalupe in Mexico (<http://sanpanchocommunitygarden.blogspot.com>)

Land requirements:

- ½ acre to 1 acre of cultivable land
- Must have existing water rights
- Must be able to accommodate a 25'X50' greenhouse
- Easy truck access to garden and greenhouse
- On site or off street parking
- Able to accommodate group visits such as schools and community groups
- Outbuildings for storage of tools a plus
- Possibility to create a food stand on site
